

AHOY CENTRE

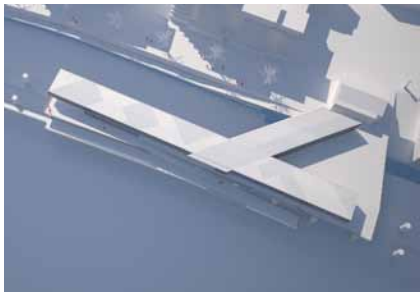

river side

AHOY Centre, London

The Ahoy Centre is a charity which provides and teaches sailing and other river related activities, especially to people with disabilities and disadvantaged youth. The new 2-storey building will be situated on the adjacent disused coal jetty. It will include teaching and workshop facilities, communal spaces, a floating marine exhibition and mooring for houseboats and tall ships.

Client: AHoy Centre
Status: planning
Value: £ 7m

bird's eye view

the shore promenade

mooring facilities for tall ships

